

Thomas Hart, Jun., and Thos. Bodley have land for sale to satisfy James Morrison's debt to John Jordan, Jun. Mention John Postlethwait and Charles Wilkins.

Samuel Nisbet, regarding a land claim in Harrison County, mentions William Thompson (living on Gray's Run in Harrison County) and Samuel Haws. Smith & Roberts have opened a painting business in Lexington in the shop next door to Mr. Noel, tailor, and opposite Mr. Boggs.

A.S. VanDeGraaf, living in Scott County near the plantation of Col. Robert Saunders, dec'd, regarding a runaway slave named Ben who was raised by Mr. Sutton near Capt. Johnson at the Cross roads between Paris and Georgetown. He was formerly owned by John Stone on Eagle Creek.

Supplement to the Kentucky Gazette, 2 April 1808

An account of a meeting of the Kentucky Insurance Company mentions William Morton, Alexander Parker, William Leavy, Thomas Wallace and George Trotter, sen. John Robinson regarding a runaway slave named Fanny. Mentions Israel Grant and John Devere. Deliver to Maj. James Fisher on N. Elkhorn in Fayette County.

John W. Hunt of Lexington, regarding a stud horse, mentions W. Hampton, Miles Seiden, Robt. Dudley and J.L. Downing.

Volume XXI, Number 1171, Tuesday, 5 April 1808

James Craig regarding a suit in Shelby Circuit Court, March term: John Todd vs. Charles Lynch.

Account of a fire at the work shops of Wyatt & Redd, carriage makers, in Lexington. Wilson, Mr. Kieser and Mr. Coons.

Obituary: the 3-year-old son of Rev. William Rainey drowned on 27 March 1808 at Paint Lick in Garrard County.

John Hamilton, living near Lees Branch in Woodford County, has land for sale. Apply to Joseph Lindsey, living near Lexington.

M.H. Breckinridge (Administratrix), A.W. Grayson and R.C. Harrison, administrators of the estate of Hon. John Breckinridge, dec'd, regarding the sale of stock. Richard Davenport has reopened his house of entertainment, Davenports Inn, in Danville in the house formerly occupied by Capt. W.E. Strong. His former house was destroyed by fire.

Halstead & Maglone of Lexington have land for sale, formerly occupied by Robert Russell as a stone cutter's yard. William T. Banton and Thomas Stirling regarding a stud horse.

Kentucky Gazette Extra, 9 April 1808

A dancing school will be held at Mrs. Beck's house. William T. Banton regarding his stud horse.

Volume XXI, Number 1172, Tuesday, 12 April 1808

George Heytel of Lexington has a house for sale, now occupied by Melchor Myers. John Todd has land for sale.

Thomas Wallace has a new shipment of goods at his store in Lexington. Jabez Vigus of Lexington continues to make saddle trees for saddlers at his shop opposite Luke Usher's umbrella manufactory in Lexington.

John Bradford, James Morrison, Thomas Hart, Jun., and William Macbean, all of Lexington, have land for sale as a result of a Fayette Circuit Court suit of Thomas and George Anderson.

John J. Flournoy, agent for Col. John Grant, gives notice to Gen. Philemon Thomas regarding land known as Tanner's Station in Boone County. William Caldwell regarding a suit in Adair Circuit Court, March term: James Wier vs. James Holmes, William Holmes and Jacob Ebsill.

John Robert Shaw regarding a charge made by Jeddiah Thompson on his death bed a few days after 24 March 1808. He includes depositions made by Lewis Hiett, Thos. Johnson, Tho. I. Dickinson, James McConnell, Walker Pemberton, Jun., and H. Harrison. A notice about the examinations of the students of Lexington Academy. Obituary: Miss Nancy Cavens, daughter of Edward Cavens of Fayette County, died 25 March 1808. Col. William Irvine of Madison County is a candidate for elector. An unsigned letter to the editor from a member of Congress regarding the conduct of Harry James.

Mr. Harvey (Harvey)

Dani & Charles Bradford have opened a book printing business. Barry & Garrett of Lexington have printing paper for sale. C. Carr has lead and shot for sale.

John Wrigglesworth of Lexington has a slave for sale. John Bradford has land for rent, formerly occupied by Gabriel Lewis. William Essex of Lexington announces that the partnership of James and David Maccoun and William Essex is dissolved, but he will continue in the bookbinding business.

Thomas Hart, Jun., John W. Hunt and John Postlethwait have a house for sale in Lexington now occupied by the Kentucky Insurance Company.

Volume XXI, Number 1173, Tuesday, 19 April 1808

James Morrison of Lexington has land for sale. Mentions William Talaterro, Col. Wm. Lytle, James Moody, Isham Talbot, Capt. C. Banks, John Fowler, Robert Johnson, James Hughes, Gen. Henry Lee, Richard Masterson, Peter Benson, Samuel Oldham, William Pollard, John Madison, Robert Meaus of Richmond, Alexander Bruce, John Cook (living near Lexington), Edw. West of Lexington and John Jones of Lexington.

More on the drowning of Rev. Mr. Rainey's son. S. Wilson regarding his school at Forest Hill in Jessamine County. John L. Martin & Company of Lexington wants to buy tanner's bark. George Dale, Jun., regarding a bond from Col. John Grant to Delancy Egbert, mentions James Cullin.

Volume XXI, Number 1174, Tuesday, 26 April 1808

Mr. Dudley of Frankfort just returned from a trip to Pittsburgh. Trotter & Tilford have tickets for the Sciota Lottery for sale. E.W. Craig wants to buy tobacco.

Lewis H. Smith & Company of Lexington wants to hire an apprentice to the blacksmith's business. Saml. January of Maysville regarding a box, addressed to Thomas Haughey, that was left at his place by Joseph Jackson.

Charles Humphreys and James Coleman regarding a patented corn shelling machine. Mentions Thomas Hart, sen. Hugh Muldrow, living 6 miles from Lexington near the Woodford road, regarding a runaway slave named Humphrey.

Thomas Royle has a pasture for rent for grazing cattle.

Volume XXI, Number 1175, Tuesday, 3 May 1808

A.H. Harris, living next door to the late John Breckinridge, has livestock for sale. Porter Clay has erected a saw mill on Red River and is open for business. William Hunter, D. Weisiger, Wm. Trigg and John Brown regarding the construction of a Bank of Kentucky building. Mentions Samuel Throckmorton of Frankfort.

Robert Harrison Grayson of Washington is a candidate for elector. An account of the horse race at the Lexington course mentions Mr. Bodley, Mr. Claibourn and Mr. Owings.

A report of an Indian attack on boats on the Tennessee River mentions Capt. Mortimer, Mr. Helm of Mason County and Mr. Masters (brother-in-law to Mr. Hervy) Edward Porter (brother to Capt. John Porter of Paris) and Mr. Hervy of Mason County were both killed.

C. Kieser regarding holsters he lent to the Troop of Cavalry of Lexington. Joseph Oder of Harrison County regarding a bond from his father, Joseph Oder, sen., of Virginia, written before the Revolution to a merchant in Falmouth. Delancey Egbert regarding the recent letter to the editor from George Dale, Jun., mentions John Grant and James Cullin.

Supplement, 3 May 1808

An account of the horse race at the Washington course mentions Col. Hampton and J.P. Richardson.

Volume XXI, Number 1176, Tuesday, 10 May 1808

Obituary: Mrs. Jane Short, wife of Peyton Short of Woodford County, died 3 May 1808 and is survived by her mother, husband and family. Frederick Jordy, living next door to Gen. Todd in Lexington, has jewelry for sale. Wade N. Woodson, living in Knox County on the Cumberland River, has land for sale. Volume XXI, Number 1177, Tuesday, 17 May 1808

Doctor Joseph Boswell has moved to Lexington and will practice medicine there.